

Dear Juanita,

From turkey to tenacity.

Yes, the holiday season is here. And though you may be mentally preparing yourself to have small talk with several third cousins and that weird aunt who looks you right in the eyes as you try her terrible cranberry sauce – don't lose sight of your ultimate goal:

A degree from Regis University.

Perhaps it's the final step in earning a promotion or maybe a shift in career paths. Whatever your reason, applying now for January classes will position you to live your purpose and leave a positive impact.

So as your gravy boat sets sail on a sea of green beans and stuffing, try to remember how great it will feel to, one day, sit at the family table as a Regis graduate. You'll love it.

Almost as much as your dad loves those gizzards.

Apply today using the code GIVETHANKS to waive your application fee. Offer expires 11/30/17.
